the livestrong foundation and m do not endorse any of the products or services that are advertised on the web site scotto's departure from bnp paribas was related to issues with his performance and effectiveness as a co-head of the research group and his reaction to the change in his managerial responsibilities the athletes's training program should remain more or less the same